After Stabbing Her Three Times He Cut His Throat Before a Mirror.

JUST OUT OF AUBURN PRISON.

He Served Two Years for Assaulting Policeman Graham, of Brooklyn.

Samuel Herkowitz, twenty-three years old, was released Wednesday from the Auburn Prison, where he had served a term of two years for assaulting Officer Graham, of Brooklyn.

He went to the home of his wife at 74 Johnson avenue, Williamsburg, and asked her to live with him.

She refused.

He told her he would give her a week to think it over, and if she did not live with him he would kill her.

He went to the house again this morning. Mrs. Herkowitz lives on the second floor. She was alone when her husband came and demanded that she again live with him.

She refused again and Herkowitz pulled a table knife from his pocket. It was sharpened to a fine point.

He sprang upon her and stabbed her in the breast, neck and head.

Then, going to a looking-glass, he drew the blade across his throat.

Mrs. Herkowitz fled to the floor unconscious. Her husband, with the blood streaming from his throat, attempted to run away, but was captured by Charles Murphy, a tenant in the house, and held until the arrival of Policeman Callahan, of the Herbert street police station.

Herkowitz and his wife were taken to St. Catherine's Hospital. They are said to be in a dying condition.

THE STOCK MARKET IS STRONG

Quite Active at the Close and Higher Prices Were Recorded.

An Early Drive at Chicago Gas Which Declined to 59 7-8.

A "drive" at Chicago Gas right at the opening of the Exchange, under which that stock declined 1-8, to 59 7-8, ended the operations of the bears for a time. The general market resisted all efforts to put prices to a lower level, and speedily got about from Gas, which later rallied to 60 1-2.

Taken altogether a very confident feeling prevailed, owing partly to the fact that powerful banking interests feel bullish on securities and partly to the belief that the bond syndicate will continue to support the market. A number of bills so that an export movement of gold will be averted.

John W. Deane, a director of the Chicago Gas Trust, is quoted as saying: "We may possibly hold a meeting in New York about Saturday. I cannot declare as positively, but I think that that will probably be the case. We may then decide not to issue a dividend, and again some other action may be taken. It is entirely problematical as yet. It depends much on what the stockholders wish."

Money 1-1 1-2 per cent. on call. Foreign exchange is firm at 48 1-2 to 49 for bankers' long sterling, and 49 1-2 to 50 for demand. The gold market is steady at 100. The silver market is steady at 66 7-8, and Mexican dollars at 100.

The stock market was less active after midday, but speculation lost none of its strength. In a number of instances still higher prices were recorded.

Stocks displayed renewed activity as the day drew to a close and higher prices were the rule. The Orange and Blue, especially strong and advancing on large transactions. Chicago Gas was the only marked exception, selling down from 60 1-2 to 59 1-4 and finding little support at any time.

There is a general conviction that the Trust will pay no dividend at least until October, and that this will precipitate a decline in the stock. The stock is held as an investment.

The steamship Umbria, which sails for London tomorrow, will take out 30,000 ounces of silver, shipped by H. J. Deane, of the Chicago Gas Trust, and 10,000 ounces of gold, shipped by J. W. Deane, of the Chicago Gas Trust.

The steamship St. Paul, which sails for London tomorrow, will take out 100,000 ounces of silver, shipped by H. J. Deane, of the Chicago Gas Trust, and 10,000 ounces of gold, shipped by J. W. Deane, of the Chicago Gas Trust.
